Special Session of the Local Board of Improvement.

Inspection of Water Pipes Recently Laid—Contractors' Bill Ordered.
Paid—Communications and Petitions—School Matters—Personal and Other Notes.

The Local Board of Improvement met in special session last night and was called to order by Chairman Jones, who stated the nature of the business to come before it.

A communication was received from Mr. H. L. Smith, superintendent of the water works, stating that the line of the water department had inspected the water pipes recently put down in the ward by Messrs. Guild & Co., as per specifications, and they were good, and that the water department accepts the work. The communication was received and filed.

The contract of Messrs. Guild & Co. for laying the water pipes having been completed, their bill, amounting to $12,918.75, was allowed.

A letter from Mr. Arnold Eberhard, making application to enter the list as a competitor for drawing plans for the new school building to be erected, was filed for future reference.

A communication from the Board of Health, stating that it will render all assistance possible to the sanitary inspector, Mr. Putnam, in the abatement of nuisances in the ward, and suggesting that in future he confer with the health commissioner in reference to any particular nuisance, was filed and the Street Committee was instructed to notify Mr. Putnam.

Communications from Mrs. Clark, rector of School No. 1, and Miss Tobault, of School No. 2, relative to the board purchasing Johnson's Universal Cyclopedia as an aid to both teachers and pupils, was referred to the School Committee, to report at the next meeting.

Mr. Gale, from the School Committee, reported that he had closed the deal with Mr. Smith for the lot adjoining School No. 2, on which the proposed new annex to the school is to be erected.

Mr. Bunting offered a resolution requesting the Councils to unite with the war in erecting a modern school building in the western part of the ward, the expense of building and running the same to be equally borne by the city and Brambleton Ward.

The matter was discussed at some length by Messrs. Bunting and Reid, who favored such a proposition, and by Messrs. Gale, East, Hancock, Ferber and Sterling as an unwise measure.
Pending the discussion of the resolution Mr. Gale offered the following amendment:

That the School Committee be authorized to ask for competitive plans for the erection of a two-story annex to School No. 2, said plans and specifications to be drawn only by Norfolk architects. After some little discussion the amendment was adopted.

PERSONAL AND OTHER NOTES.

There will be preaching and revival services especially for young people at McKendree M. E. Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. J. M. Bunting of West Bramble-ton avenue, has been awarded the contract for the plastering of Griffith's new block, in Newport News, at a cost of $1,995. He has also received the contract for plastering of M. P. Garrett's residence in Weldon, N. C.

The Epworth League of Trinity M. E.
Church will meet for devotional exercises at 6:30 p. m. Sunday.

At the meeting of the B. Y. P. U. of Spergeon Memorial Baptist Church Monday night the subject of missions in Japan will be discussed.

Miss Halle Nottingham, of Northampton county, is visiting Miss Lois Sterling, of Windsor avenue.

There will be a "Rosebud rally" at McKendree Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. An excellent program is being arranged, which includes an address by Rev. Lloyd T. Williams.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Miss Carrie M. Ironmonger, who has been spending a few weeks, to the delight of her many friends, in this city and Portsmouth, returned to her home in York county yesterday.

Mr. A. V. Bousch, foreman for Odell Bros' packing house, is quite sick at his home on Falkland street.

Marie Wood, colored, was locked up at the station house last night for ec-casionally cutting Sadie Mason, also colored, at No. 39 Reids lane. The latter had four long cuts on her back, which required fifteen stitches at the hands of Turnkey Hamilton.

In examining the pawnbrokers' and liquor dealers' bonds Deputy Collector Larkin, of the Internal Revenue Service, has discovered that five of the former and 154 of the latter are minus the 50-cent war revenue stamp required.
These will have to be supplied by those by whom the bonds were executed.

General John P. Donahoe, of Wilmington, Del., past National Commander of the Union Veteran Legion, was a visitor last night to the Virginian-Pilot reporter's room.

The moulders of White & Bro's. plywood manufactory on Water street are still out on a strike. The firm has a few moulders employed, and the moulding department is now running.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

NO CHANGE FOR THE BETTER UP TO LAST NIGHT.

There is no material change in the conditions incident to the oyster shuckers' strike, nor is any for the better expected in the immediate future.
While the Shuckers' Union, as an organization, disclaims responsibility for the "walk out" by four or five hundred shuckers, which followed the discharge by packers of "leading men," or walking delegates, it is claimed that the Union encouraged these men in a course which eventuated in their discharge by the packers.

Messrs. Crosby, of W. J. Crosby & Co., and Mr. Hemingway, of the Hemingway Packing Company, went to Baltimore yesterday to arrange to bring on shuckers should it be found necessary to replace the Union men of this city.

Mr. Ironmonger, of Ironmonger & Brother, received yesterday from Baltimore an offer to send on 25 shuckers, but up to last night he had not decided to accept it. He has just returned from North Carolina, where he made arrangements to establish two packing houses, should the course of the Norfolk shuckers render it advisable to remove their business. It is understood that other packers have in contemplation an early removal to the Old North State, where strikes are comparatively unknown.

It was reported on the streets yesterday afternoon that there was a probability of the striking getting into court through the arrest and indictment of several of the prominent union shuck-ers for conspiracy. The packers claim that they have a clear case against a considerable number of "leading men," including walking delegates, etc.

Next Monday all members of the Union who are now employed in Norfolk packing houses will be given the choice of continuing at work as individuals, but not otherwise. Should they decide to adhere to their organization, their services will be dispensed with.
All who "walked out" will be taken back on their own terms, with the exception of the "leading men" and "walking delegates," who will not be given work under any circumstances.

It is said that the packers will not experience any difficulty in filling the places of the strikers, and after Monday will proceed to do so quickly, should the necessity arise.

PRINCESS ANNE TROOPS.

COMPANY C, FIFTEENTH VIR- GINIA CAVALRY.

The Richmond Dispatch published the following communication:

Will you kindly give this roll a small space in the Confederate columns of the Dispatch? I am sure that many of the old comrades of this company and the children and relatives of those that are dead would be glad to have a copy of the roll of this command for reference, and to take this method of making it public, as the Dispatch is read by many in Eastern Virginia. This roster of Company C, Fifteenth Virginia Cavalry (W. H. F. Lee's, afterwards L. L.
Lamar's Brigade), Army of Northern Virginia, is made from the recollections of M. P. Seneca, now the only surviving commissioned officer of the company. It begins with the organization of the company, in 1862, just before the evacuation of Norfolk, and includes the years to 1865. A few may be unintentionally omitted, but the list is very nearly correct. Imperfect memory has caused the omission of a great many initials, and perhaps some are incorrect; but the boys will excuse an old comrade, who is not as familiar with the roll as he was thirty-five years ago.
Here is the list:

Captain E. W. Capps, wounded, and died in prison; Lieutenant J. P. W.
Kellum, killed; Lieutenant A. W. Edwards, died in prison; Lieutenant M. P.
Seneca; G. P. D. Brice; O. B. Mears, orderly sergeant; Sergeant G. L. Brockett, killed; Sergeant James P. Kellum, killed; Sergeant Thorogood Kellum, killed; Sergeant William E. Holt, killed; Sergeant E. W. Holt, dead; Corporal George C. Plangman, dead; Corporal Thomas Woodhouse, killed; Corporal William James.

Privates—William H. Ackles (courier), William Ackles, Edward Atwood, William T. Ayers, William C. Beasley, Jesse T. Bright, Henry Bonney, died in camp; William F. Brock, dead; Henry Brock, Joel Capps, dead; William Cook, John G. Chappell, dead; Virginius Cook; Newton H. Campbell, dead; John Cramer, dead; Samuel Carroll, died in prison; Washington Capps, dead; Charles T. Capps; Wilson Dozier, died in camp; James M. Drewry; Henry F. Dyer, dead; James Eaton, Early W. Eater; T. L. Etheridge, dead; Charles Flanagan, William Forbes; Johnson Fisher, dead; David N. Grimstead, died in prison; Daniel N.
Grimstead, died in camp; Joseph L.
Guy, William T. Gornto, John D. Gordon, Anderson Godfrey, John T. Hargrove, Luke Hill, dead; Walter H. Hill, Thomas Henly (commissary), Henry Henley, Henry S. Harrison, dead; James Holt, dead; John D. James, Emperor James, dead; Benjamin F. Jordan, Jesse Lane, dead; Henry Malbone, dead; William Malbone, dead; N. B.
Morse, William Morrisett, dead; William T. Munden; Zachariah Munden, dead; J. Walter Munden, dead; J. S.
D. Munden, James F. Munden, dead; T. F. Munden, James F. Munden, in hospital; Enoch Petree, Enoch D. Rainey, dead; John Rainey, killed; C. D. Randolph, dead; Ashville D. Simmons, dead; John T. Simmons, killed; R. H. Smith, dead; John Shepperd, dead; John A. Shipp, William Stone, dead; Zachariah Sykes, dead; Isaac L. Sawyer, Moses Wilson, John W. Whitehurst, Charles Williams, A. J. Williams, dead; Aleck Whitehead, died in camp; Lycurgus Whitehead, died; William N. White, Albert L.
White, James West, William D. Woodhouse, Henry White, dead; Robert W.
Whitehurst, John Wright, dead; George Wilson, George Fentress (colored cook).
We are crossing the river one by one;
Our number is growing small;
Soon we'll stack our arms, and then We'll answer the last roll-call.

M. P. SENECA.

W. G. T. U. Notes.

The meeting of the Executive Board of the W. G. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the president, in Ghent.

The District Convention, which will be held on the first Tuesday of December, was discussed. Reports from the superintendents were heard and enjoyed.
Miss Belle Kearney and Miss Le-Cock, the State organizers of the "Y," and W. G. T. U., will be in Norfolk this fall.

Mrs. C. H. Addison was elected superintendent of Unfermented Wine, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. White.

Persons who came to the city from Virginia Beach yesterday reported that a large school of whales were sighted going southward early yesterday morning. There were about forty or fifty of them. This is said to be a sure sign of the approach of cold weather.

COURTS OF NORFOLK

Saloon Keepers Plead Guilty to Selling Liquor on Sunday.

A Libel Suit Consumes Another Day in the U. S. Court—Judge Wilcox Sends a Note of Warning to the So-called Social Clubs.

In the Corporation Court yesterday Aaron Lyons, colored, indicted for felonious cutting, was acquitted.

The case of Peter Roberts, colored, indicted for perjury in attempting to convict his wife and mother-in-law of attempting to poison him, was continued until the 27th instant.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS.
The following deeds of bargain and sale were admitted to record yesterday.
Thomas Townsend, receiver, to Elizabeth D. Joynes, lot fronting 22 feet on Balcony lane, $105.

William B. Ayndotte and wife to Wilson Sanderlin, lot fronting 30 feet on Reservoir avenue, near Brambleton avenue, $1,600.

George W. Gilbert, Patrick Hart and Samuel C. Phillips, trustees of the Twin City Permanent Building Association, to C. W. Cake, improved lot fronting 25 feet on Marshall avenue; $1,050.

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT.

The libel suit of Captain A. N. Marshall, owner of the tug Sallic, against the steamer Hampton Roads, of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, consumed another day in the United States Court yesterday. All the evidence in the case is in, but the argument, and it is probable that nearly all of to-day will be taken up by them.
Judge Waddill issued an order discharging Joshua Garrison in bankruptcy.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.

Three saloon-keepers were arraigned for keeping open their places on Sunday. They were arrested on warrants last Monday, having violated the Sunday law the day before. Each pleaded guilty, and Justice Tomlin fined them $25, which was paid.

Thomas Griffin was also arraigned on a similar charge, but the case against him was not proven, and he was discharged. Griffin was arraigned on another charge, that of fighting in his saloon with George Harris and Jack Hartz, colored. Each were fined $10 and costs. The first and last named appealed to the Corporation Court. Harris went to jail in default of his fine.

THE SOCIAL CLUBS.

After Griffin left the court Police Commissioner Wilcox called the attention of Justice Tomlin to the fact that while it had not been proven that Griffin was guilty of keeping his bar open on Sunday, it was made clear that he had kept open the bar of a so-called social club. Judge Wilcox said that Justice Tomlin had ruled that these clubs could not keep their bars open on Sunday. Justice Tomlin then had another warrant sworn out for Griffin, returnable next Monday morning.

Griffin's counsel, Mr. John G. Tilton, protested against this. He said Griffin had the right to keep his club open if no liquor was sold. He furthermore said that there would be warm times if all clubs were thus called to account for Sunday opening. Judge Wilcox said that this was just what the Police Commissioners proposed to have done.

Edwin Hamlin, colored, wife beating; fined $5.00.

Albert Pugh and William Stark, both colored, suspected of stealing brass; committed to jail until October 20th.

Sam Lane, cursing and abusing Mrs.
Ella James, of No. 133 Charles street; fined $25. He also assaulted Susie Lane, and was fined $25 for that offense.

George Archer, colored, cutting Lou-less Alexander; fined $25. Appealed to the Corporation Court.

A. S. Martin was fined $10 and costs for failing to fill a lot which the Board of Health ordered filled.

James Walker, the negro who cut Mary Davis, colored, several nights ago; fined $25, and continued to ninety days in jail.

Matorman A. Harrison and Conductor J. O. Leary, who had charge of the car that injured Dave Mackey, colored, several weeks ago, were arraigned and discharged.

Tiong Whar, a Chinaman, the first person arrested for violating the antispitting ordinance, was discharged with a warning to deposit his saliva in the gutter hereafter.

Wedding Extractions.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gregory have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Grace Christian, to Mr.
Albert R. Cooke, the ceremony to take place at their residence, No. 160 South Kelly avenue, Brambleton Ward, Thursday evening, October 26th, at 9 o'clock.

School of Whales Sighted.

Persons who came to the city from
a large school of whales were sighted
going southward early yesterday morning. There were about forty or fifty of
of the approach of cold weather.

Watt, Rettew & Clay DOZIER'S DAILY NEWS.

We talk about coats to-day.
Tisn't any longer necessary to lavish small fortunes by sending to great fashion centers for fashionable coats. A nickel to pay street car fare or ferry fare is all that's needed to land you to where you can see the choicest coats of the world's foremost designers and makers. The styles we are showing are identically the same as are being shown in Paris, London and New York to-day.
These coats were made by makers of repute, and they came direct from where style starts. Now of course we think you are willing to economize, and consequently we invite you to see these coats, for in seeing you'll in all probability be tempted to buy, and in buying you'll certainly economize. We have most any color and style that is popular at most any price that is desired. Prices from $5 and on to $35.
